Work description.

With Sami in the field covering Dutra's slow adjusting work, and my days numbered in the office and confined to finishing off reports, I stayed in the office all day.

The Senate hearing was the main attraction today, the majority of which was watched by the interested parties.

M. Awal told me that the adjusting of the fenders is proceeding in accordance with the principles they had laid out in a conversation he had conducted with Mike Eddy at about 14:00. I do not know about the nature of the conversations and did not pry into the matter now that I am all but removed from the operation. M. Awal told me that he wanted to check out the site together on Monday.
